

Independence Public Library Questions and Answers

Will the new library be energy efficient?

The building committee, library board, and architect have all worked to design and plan an energy efficient facility. We will be using geo-thermal heating, ventilating, and air conditioning, high performance insulation, local materials and manufacturers, high performance light fixtures, and area zoning for HVAC and lighting. In addition to this, many other sustainable design opportunities will be utilized.

Summer and Winter
Geothermal Heat Pump Diagrams

More Library Building Information: www.indylibrary.org