

Parking at the Independence Public Library

If you are coming to a meeting at the library, please park in the area between the Lee Mansion and the Accounting Firm. This is the highlighted area east of the library and is labeled Additional Parking on the map.

Please do not park directly in front of or to the side of the accounting firm during business hours or during tax season. Additional parking is also available on the streets around the library.

Thank you for your help!