

Why I gave to the new Independence Public Library...

"So many communities have new libraries, and it's time for Independence to join them. There are always people reading, visiting, or using the computers at the library. A new library will provide a needed place for people to meet and gather, attract people to our community, and provide a user-friendly setting for all ages."

-Dan and Vicki Kegler

Dan and
Vicki
Kegler

More Library Building Information: www.indylibrary.org