

Thoughts on the new Independence Public Library...

"The new library is long overdue. When I was a kid I knew the library was inadequate. Now the new library is becoming a reality. The community will love the benefits of additional room, books, access, resources, and places for groups to meet. I'm excited that there will be more learning opportunities for more people."
-Richard Shillinglaw

Richard
Shillinglaw