

Thoughts on the new Independence Public Library...

"I believe a library symbolizes the commitment of the community to citizens. I am thrilled with the new library's ability to enhance learning opportunities for us all. Each of us will have access to a meeting place or a study place, an opportunity to explore new horizons, a ready resource for information, access to computer technology, and a serene and quiet place rich with treasures. The new library will be a great

Ruthanne is using one of the library's new laptops!

addition to our community and demonstrate our readiness to meet the opportunities before us."

-Ruthanne
Thompson

More Library Building
Information:
www.indylibrary.org