

Thoughts on the new Independence Public Library...

"We look forward to being able to browse all of the books, read, and relax in a pleasant environment.

We are especially glad to see the plan includes expanded availability of computers and a special place for teenagers because they are both greatly needed. The library will be a great asset to the community."

-Ron and Marie Wegner

Ron and
Marie
Wegner